- What is needed in terms of community input for successful completion of these tasks?
- Community engagement opportunities for a successful housing assessment:
 - Community assistance to ensure we get a broad range of Park County residents responding to the assessment, including participation in stakeholder groups or other types of focus groups
 - Participation in a public forum to discuss key concerns and launch the Housing Survey – tentatively scheduled for January 2021, depending on COVID-19 developments
 - Community engagement opportunities for a successful housing action plan:
 - Concentrated effort of a Housing Working Group to review the assessment results and identify relevant strategies – see draft Job Description
